I know my mind and I have made my choice; Not from your temper does my doom depend; Love me or love me not, you have no voice In this, which is my portion to the end. Your presence and your favours, the full part That you could give, you now can take away; What lies between your beauty and my heart Not even you can trouble or betray. Mistake me not—unto my inmost core I do

It's a lot more rewarding to stand your ground and make them face the reality that abortion is your choice, my choice, our choice, and they're just going to have to deal with it. (Also, if any forced-birthers were thinking of spewing your bullshit under this post or posting this in the pro-life sub, I'd reconsider since every anti-choice comment will result in a donation to an abortion fund.

Use choice in a sentence | choice sentence examples

Every day that we wake up we are given a choice. We can either wake up on this side of the bed or the wrong side of the bed. We can be a Positive Polly or a Negative Nancy. I know I have had many days where I wake up and I just begin my day negatively. My hair isn't cooperating, my make up doesn't look perfect, these pants don't fit just right.
