What we are going to do today is look at Psalm 133. We used that as a base to look at unity among the brethren, and we will see, I hope by the end of this sermon, where we fit in bringing unity about. Let us go to Psalm 133, just three short verses. Psalm 133:1-3 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity ...

Psalm 133 tells us three things about living together in unity. 1) It tells us the goodness of living together in unity. 2) It tells us the source of living together in unity. And 3) It tells us the blessing of living together in unity. Let's take a look at all three together now. I. The goodness of living together in unity (1) turned to Psalms 133 to preach about, "How Sweet It Is". Relational life is not a mere accessory to spirituality or ministry, but the heart of it. Finding unity within diversity because of the diversity, and not in spite of it, is an important link of unity within the Godhead. It is also an important link for brethren and sisters in

Psalm 133. EXEGESIS: CONTEXT: At three verses, this is one of the shortest psalms in the psalter. Psalm 117, with two verses, is the only shorter psalm. Psalms 131, 133 and 134 each have three verses. It may be significant that those three are among the 15 Songs of Ascents, but I have not been able to determine the significance. SUPERScription:

which I have had many requests. "Sermon in Shoes" can be found in Salvation Songs B-56. It will fit well with the VBS theme. The Beginners could use it as a song for the closing exercises because they should be doing the part about the second, or the shoes. Make all the shoes the same size. Then they can be placed back to back and glued to sticks.
